DAILY TRIBUNE.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

WEDNESDAY MORNING . . MAY 16, 1855.

THE KANSAS EMIGRANTS.

Action of the Illinois Central Railroad Company.

In all parts of Illinois the belief that the New England emigrants will be swept out of Kansas by the mob of armed men who have sworn to shoot slavery to the northward, is so strong that the Illinois Central Railroad is influenced by it to send an agent to Kansas, for the purpose of inducing new comers to come to this, our neighbor's home till this feasts! [Not agent, a persistent and influential citizen of Southern Illinois, left this city on Monday evening last, and will proceed to Kansas without delay. This action is timely. Perhaps before December we will be the country's literal office, the Tribune's work will be done, and those settlers, who are guilty of no crime except that of loving liberty better than slavery, will have become citizens of the Territory of the immense rabble by which they are pursued. Great Heaven! what sent still slavery decided? What further motive is needed to induce the North to prevent such deeds, than the belief and glee with the probe of our Great Father—is by the foundations of a great state, to whose growth their own posterity is pledged. If they have labored with so much purpose; have outlived away on one's strength, have succeeded so as hour's territory; let, with the Bible in one hand and the rifle in the other, resolutely try the slavery that their neighbors have set up. For this, their property must be sacrificed, their wives terrified and insulted, and they driven away or murdered, if not by the hands of ruffians, at least by the hands of the servants of the President, and under the very shadow of our country's flag! The forbearance of the North will not be misunderstood.

Illinois is free from the curse with which Kansas is ridden; the day of Lovejoy does not murders has passed. Here, if the tongues are bound, the hands of every free man that is worthy of the name are free. Kansas is the United States Territory nearest to Illinois, and they say to be settled by the restriction that will come with the latter; and in the fountain from which those emigrants go!

FIRE!

The sun this morning rose upon a scene in Springfield, the like of which has never before met its unnerved horse. More than half the block of stores on the west side of the public square, from the corner of Washington street to the alley, was in ruins, and the goods, and furniture, not destroyed, were scattered about, mostly over the same house, to undergo a further evidence of the melancholy catastrophe. This great destruction of property was caused by the fall of an immediately. The fire was kindled among some loose rags out of the buildings, and was fed by the dry state of the material. Before the buildings immediately caught fire, which was not until after the flames had spread over the whole row of buildings of less consequence were destroyed.

The following is a list of the sufferers:

Clark & Hinkle, clothing store, insured for $1,500 on Northwestern and $1,000 on Ætna Valley Co.—stock mostly saved; loss estimated at $6,000.

Ralphin's tailors shop, over Clark & Hinkle's—stock mostly saved; loss estimated at $200.

Thayer & Co., dry goods store, insured for $4,000 on goods valued at $17,000, insured for $8,000—carried goods to amount of $10,000 or $12,000 in other goods.

Cassely & Johnson, druggists, insured on stock and fixtures for $2,000. Loss will be about $3,000.

Dr. Harper's office; Grimm's law office, and a barber's shop, over Freeman's books, papers, &c., mostly saved, insured at $200.

Springfield Coffee House, closed.—owned by Wm. H. Camp.—no insurance. Loss about $2000.

Bradford & Johnson's Book Store building, insured for $1,000. Loss estimated at $700. Bradford & Johnson had insured on stock $3,000; loss their estimate $1,500.

P. C. Canedy's dwelling house saved by the most persevering efforts. Brick buildings with the roofs and cornices destroyed. Stone and furniture, which are considerably damaged, insured. Canedy's furniture, Dr. Beall, was fire proof, arrested the fire on the south, but for which, the whole block on the west side of the square would have been destroyed.

The progress of the fire as it was going was arrested at Mr. Canedy's dwelling house. R. B. Fisher's store, on the north side of the square, while the fire was raging, was discovered to be on fire in the second story, it was soon extinguished, doing but little damage.

The fire department deserves the greatest consideration to draw the attention of our city authorities to the necessity of providing a more efficient system than they have had so far, for the extinguishment of fires.—Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

A New State.

The public mind has been so engrossed with California "secession" and Kansas emigration, that we have not noticed the recent application for admission of territory within the jurisdiction of the Territory of Nebraska, for the purpose of forming a State. The Omaha City Register says:

"Some of the stockholders of the Rock Island Road, (will owing more than half a million of dollars,) were willing to undertake to build it for $1,400,000, (not $1,800,000 as stated,) and take their pay in the Road, and 6,000 acres of land, at par, a total of $2,400,000 per mile, and as it was believed the right of way, depot grounds, &c., would not cost over $200 per mile, it was voted to the Rock Island Company on perpetual lease at 6 per cent on the same amount—$1,400,000. During the progress of building the road in 1855, during the progress of building the road in 1855, the whole matter was finally and frequently discussed by the stockholders of the Rock Island Road, and a loose scale of 10 by the directors, subject to the approval of the stockholders at the annual meeting in December, at which time (1857) it was confirmed by a unanimous vote. Subscriptions to the Rock Island Road and the Peoria Company are ready to show accounts with any Road, and the Peoria Company are ready to show accounts with any Road, and the Peoria Company are ready to show accounts with any Road,

Of the horses two are naval, and one bay. One of the worst horses has two blind feet white, and a very peculiar white mark in the forehead, small head and restless disposition. The other is a large horse, with a small white mark in the forehead, one short four inches long in the left fore feet. The mare is a dark sorrel, with a large white stripe in her face.
